ORDER

14-CV-8326 (CM) (JLC)

JAMES L. COTT, United States Magistrate Judge.

For the reasons discussed during the conference held today, the discovery dispute between defendants and non-party the New York City and Vicinity District Council of Carpenters (the “District Council”) is resolved as follows: The District Council shall produce the documents at issue pursuant to a protective order that the documents are for attorneys’ eyes only. The District Council shall make any redactions to these documents by March 13, and they shall be made available for defense counsel’s review on the morning of March 16. The Court’s ruling is without prejudice to defendants’ renewed motion to compel the District Council’s production of specific documents (but only after defendants and the District Council have conducted a meet-and-confer). The Court reminds defendants and the District Council that failure to abide by the terms of the protective order, which the parties should submit to the Court as soon as possible, could result in contempt sanctions.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to close docket entry number 72.

SO ORDERED.
